Between the 13th and the 17th C. the city lived its most glorious time and it was when most of the wonderful monuments that can be seen today in the city centre were built: the Collegiate Church of S. Maria in Platea (14th C.), the Palazzo del Parlamento also known as Palazzo Farnese (14th or 15th C.), the Church of S. Francesco (13th C.), with its beautiful portal, the Church of S. Giovanni Battista (11th C.). Pope Clement XIV's bull of 21 January 1772 accorded to the city of Campli the privilege of the city of Scala Santa (Holy Staircase) and in its interior there are precious art treasures. The Scala Santa features 28 steps in olive tree wood that believers walk up on their knees while praying in order to obtain the same indulgences as those obtained in the Holy Staircase in Rome. Dinner at the hotel and overnight stay.

A recent place list puts it among the first fifteen most popular sanctuaries of the world. The sanctuary dedicated to the young saint has become, in the last years, one of the most peculiar cases of people's religiousness in Italy. The fame of the saint of the miracles is based upon a continuous line of supernatural phenomena testified by thousands of votive offerings given to the sanctuary. The Sanctuary of St. Gabriel is in the middle of a holy triangle which contains three of the most famous sanctuaries in Europe: Loreto, St. Gabriel, St. Giovanni Rotondo. Lunch in a restaurant. Dinner in a typical trabocco. Overnight stay at the hotel.
